OUR IDENTITY

The O.C.E. Grand Lodge is a private social and fraternal organization for responsible men and women, established around fellowship, leadership, networking, personal development, legitimate wealth creation, mutual support, charity and service.

O.C.E. possesses its own independent identity, traditions, membership structure, leadership system, symbols, ceremonies and Code of Conduct.

LIFE IS A VOYAGE.

Every individual is travelling through a personal voyage of experiences, challenges, relationships, opportunities and achievements. O.C.E. brings people together so that this voyage can be strengthened through knowledge, fellowship, discipline, networking, leadership and mutual support.

OUR FIVE PILLARS

BROTHERHOOD

Building strong relationships, loyalty, friendship and mutual support.

SISTERHOOD

Creating meaningful bonds among women and encouraging participation, development and mutual respect.

INTEGRITY

Promoting honesty, responsibility, discipline and good character.

SERVICE

Supporting members and contributing positively to society and communities.

EXCELLENCE

Encouraging members to pursue continuous personal, professional, financial and leadership development.

OUR MARITIME IDENTITY

The distinctive character of O.C.E. is drawn from maritime traditions and philosophy, reflecting the Founder's background as a mariner.

THE ANCHOR — STABILITY

Stability, loyalty and strength. Members are reminded to remain grounded during calm and difficult periods.

THE COMPASS — DIRECTION

Direction, purpose and wisdom. It represents knowing where you are, where you are going and maintaining the proper course.

THE HELM — LEADERSHIP

Leadership, control and responsibility. Every member is encouraged to take responsibility for the direction of their own life.

THE SHIP — THE ORDER

Fellowship and unity. Members may come from different backgrounds, but within O.C.E. they travel toward shared objectives.

THE SEA — LIFE

Challenge and opportunity. Calm and rough waters symbolize the different experiences encountered throughout life.

THE CAPTAIN — RESPONSIBILITY

Leadership, courage and responsibility. The Captain represents the disciplined individual who accepts responsibility for the voyage.

THE VOYAGE — EXPERIENCE

Growth and advancement. The Voyage represents the continuing journey of learning, achievement and personal development.
